15.15	Masterclass Inclusive Thinking and multicultural dialogue by Renate Schepen and prof. Heinz Kimmerle. Theme of this masterclass is the process of multicultural understanding. How do we find the right balance between common advices and awareness of different opinions? Professor Heinz Kimmerle guides the participants through the different models, such as that of 'general understanding' of the German philosopher Gadamer. With the expertise of volunteers in a multicultural community, we bridge an academic philosophical model to a model for the daily practice.
